Field Meeting at Agricultural College.
A two day's meeting will be held Tuesday and Wednesday of next week at the Connecticut Agricultural College at Storrs by the State Pomological Society.

The time during the day will be given over to an inspection of the various departments of the college and especially to the horticultural department. Speakers will deliver interesting addresses in the evening.

Plans have been made to accommodate all who desire to stay over night. An invitation is tendered all who desire to inspect the institution.

Commissioners Reserve Decision in Way Case.

The commissioners appointed to pass upon the alleged claim of Mrs. Sarah Way of this city, who is seeking $500 from the estate of the late William Ross of Chaplin, met in that village Thursday forenoon, and listened to the arguments of the attorneys.

Attorney Charles A. Capen and Henry H. Hunter argued for the claimant, and Attorney William A. King for the respondent. The commissioners announced that they would reserve decision. No date was set for the rendition of their findings.

Socialist Speaker.
Attorney L. S. Edwards, a socialist speaker from Oklahoma, will be in this city today and Saturday and will address audiences.

Trip Was Rough.
Clarence C. Palmer and mother have returned from an ocean trip to Old Point Comfort, Va. Mr. Palmer said that the sail both ways was very rough.

Additions to Census Lists.
Registrars of Voters John C. Bartlett and James H. Hager filed the new census lists for the town of Willimantic at the office of the town clerk Thursday afternoon. The lists are about the same as last year, but show a slight increase. There were some 60 or 70 additions and a few eliminations.

Attended Cavalry Reunion at Middletown.
Probation Officer William C. Lyman attended the reunion of the Connecticut cavalry at Middletown Wednesday and reports a most enjoyable affair.

NEW TROLLEY LINE
Enjoyed by Hundreds of Willimantic and South Coventry People on First Day of Use.

It is estimated that more than half the resident population of South Coventry and hundreds along the route of the new trolley came to this city on Thursday.

Hundreds of other people from this city availed of the opportunity to take a ride to the pretty village near beautiful Lake Waubesa.

From early morning until late at night the single car was literally packed and wholly inadequate to handle the joyous throngs.

Committee Appointed to Plan Social.
Augustus C. Tyler camp, No. 3, U. S. W. V., voted to hold a social in town hall some time next month and this general committee was appointed to make arrangements for the affair: Commander Timothy McNamara, chairman; Comrade Junior Vice Department Commander James Cochrane; Comrades Thomas Owens, Arthur W. Sweet, Thomas Joyce, M. J. Sullivan and Robert O. Snow.

It is the desire of the local camp to make the Thread City department encampment the most memorable one in the department's history and every effort will be exerted to make that, and possible.

Tearing Down Old House.
The tearing down of the old house corner of Jackson and Jackson place Thursday attracted large numbers during the day. Poor families in that neighborhood were benefited to some extent in getting the old shingles and scantlings for firewood. At one time during the afternoon sixteen small express wagons were in use, loaded with shingles.

Ornamental Fence for Parochial School.
About 500 feet of ornamental iron fence was held by the Rev. Joseph parochial school and convent grounds, except but for a few details the same pattern as the fence now in front of St. Joseph's hospital. It will be placed in position in a few days and will bound the area from the Hansen property to the hospital fence on Jackson.

Clerks' Holiday Made Thursday Lively
It is surprising what a suspension of retail trade will make for one day. Wednesday was Clerks' day in this city. Proprietors and clerks, especially the latter, who work on delivery teams, were hard worked all day Tuesday supplying the trade for the holiday following. Thursday was equally as brisk; markets and grocery stores had the best trade in years for a Thursday, according to proprietors.

Personal Mention.
Frank W. Chappell of Chaplin was in town on business Thursday.

Mrs. John Jennings and son, Raymond, are in Providence for a few days.

Miss Edith M. Fay is enjoying a month's vacation trip in Massachusetts and Vermont.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mason of Manchester are the guests of friends in the city for a week.

Mrs. Charles Ratcliff of upper Jackson street is spending a few days with relatives in Westerly.

Timothy Kelley of Colchester was the guest of Michael E. Sullivan of Ash Avenue Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Van Dale of Putnam are guests of Selectman and Mrs. S. Arnold Peckham.

Miss Agnes Rafferty, a nurse at the Backus hospital, is spending her vacation at her home on Jackson street.

Charles York, a former resident of this place, now of Abol, Mass., was in town Thursday calling on old friends.

Dr. David Clark of New York is visiting friends in this city. Dr. Clark comes at the time employed by Samuel Chebro in this city.

Misses Edwige and Leona Gilman and Mrs. M. Priot, their sister, have returned to Columbia after a two weeks' trip to Hampton beach, N. H., and other New Hampshire and Massachusetts coast resorts.

Dr. J. J. Smith of New Britain, formerly of this city, called Thursday on the Pantheon for Naples. He will spend a fortnight in the hospital at Vienna, and a week in Berlin, and will also spend several weeks in travel.

WILLIMANTIC CAMP MEETING.

Growing Attendance Marked Services Thursday—Dr. Dwight Jordan Made Delightful Historical Address in the Afternoon—Officers of the Association.

At 7 o'clock Wednesday evening the largest congregation of the week gathered in the tabernacle. A spirited praise service led by John Reynolds opened the meeting and Mr. Reynolds certainly has the faculty of getting good results with a chorus and audience.

Rev. J. H. Newland gave out the notices and the opening. Rev. Mr. Brooks of Moodus read the scripture and Rev. F. C. Baker of Fairhaven, Mass., read the prayer. Rev. Harry Taylor then called on the audience to sing one verse of Lord I Hear the Showers of Blessing, after which he took for his subject "Change the Fashions at Capernaum," taking the story from Luke v. 17, of the man sick with the palsy. Mr. Taylor told of the good work of Mr. Faith, Mr. Love, Mr. Perseverance and Mr. Ingenuity. At the close of the sermon he closed with a prayer, after which with a simple good night he closed the service.

Big Attendance Thursday.

Thursday morning broke clear and sunny. Early trolleys brought large numbers to the grounds. The morning meeting at 6 a. m. was held in the tabernacle. At 8 p. m. a meeting was held in the New London, Stafford Springs and East Glastonbury houses.

Adjourned Meeting of Association.
At 9 a. m. the adjourned meeting of the Willimantic Camp Meeting association was held in the tabernacle. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Rev. J. H. Newland, Norwich.
Vice President—Rev. L. M. Flocken, Willimantic.
Secretary—Rev. F. C. Baker, Fair Haven, Mass.
Treasurer—Rev. E. M. Anthony, Jewett City.

Trustee for Five Years—J. H. Root of New London.
Executive Committee for Three Years: G. H. Holmes, New London; Capt. H. M. Root, Brooklyn, N. Y.; M. C. Walter, Willimantic.

Executive Committee for One Year—Fred H. Bushnell, Norwich.
It was announced that M. C. Walter of Niantic has been appointed caretaker of the grounds in place of Carew Dyer W. R. S. Jeffers, who has resigned. Mr. Jeffers' resignation is to take effect Sept. 1, 1909.

A revised constitution was presented by the secretary and adopted. Capt. H. M. Randall was appointed to present resolutions on the death of J. G. Davoll, a former caretaker of the grounds and for many years a member of the association.

Dr. Sitterly at 10 O'clock Service.
The 10 a. m. service was held at the preachers' stand. The choir had many additions and there were many ministers on the platform. After a spirited song service led by Mr. Reynolds the district superintendent gave out the notices. Then Rev. Thomas Tyrie of Staffordville offered prayer. Mr. Reynolds followed with a solo, "I Want Only Thee." Then a hymn by the Brethren, after which Dr. Sitterly spoke in answer to several questions and advised the corrected English New Testament for Bible students. He recommended also for students of St. John Daniel Steele's Half Hours with the Epistles and St. John's Gospel. Dr. Sitterly then took up the second chapter of the epistle of St. John. The general subject of Dr. Sitterly's talk is "The Eternal Life." The principal words of the chapter were on a blackboard.

Historical Address in Afternoon.
At 2 p. m. an address which had many additions since the morning service gathered at the auditorium. An unusually large choir assisted Mr. Reynolds in the praise service. The Glory Song and Myles Lane seemed to be general favorites. The district superintendent gave out the notices and made an appeal for the collection. While the collection was being taken the choir sang "It is Well With My Soul." Prayer was offered by Rev. W. F. Taylor of the church at Manchester. Mr. Reynolds sang a solo, "Gideon Had Three Hundred Soldiers." Mr. Newland then introduced Dr. Dwight Jordan. Dr. Jordan made the historical address of the week. He took for his foundation "Not yet that former days are better than these." When a boy between 8 and 10 Dr. Jordan remembered hearing the talk at his own home of the opening of the Willimantic camp meeting. His paper was full of delightful reminiscences and was enjoyed by all present. Especially was it interesting to the old campers. There was many a tear shed as Dr. Jordan mentioned the name of many departed saints who had labored on the grounds in the old days. At the close of Dr. Jordan's remarks the district superintendent asked how many in the audience had been present at every meeting. Six rose. Three present had been converted at the first meeting and five present had been to all but one.

Birthday Celebration.
A social event of the day was the ninth birthday party of Miss Carol Smith from 4 Hill street. Miss Smith entertained her friends with selections on the Victor and games. At 5 they were ushered into the dining room where a table most beautifully decorated with red, white and blue and ornamented with a birthday cake awaited her guests. Ice cream and cake were served, after which the children went to the pine tree, where their pictures were taken. The following were present: Elizabeth Hibbard, Preston Keates, Dorothy Smith, Franklin Smith, Mildred Harrison, Ruth Harrison, Helen Keates, Dorothy Watson, Percival Harwood, Margaret Stephens, Kenneth Holmes, Marion Smith, Annie Hill, Grace Hill, Dorothy Rehpus, Dorothy Keates, Carrie Maxwell and Margery Keith.

Camp Notes.
S. A. Prentiss, New London was a visitor on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rogers of New London were visitors on Thursday.

C. A. Davis of Rockville lost a valuable horse Friday. Davis had just purchased the horse.

At the Beth-El are registered Rev. Harry Taylor of Andover, Mass., and John W. Reynolds of Easton, Pa.

The dining room at the boarding house of Mrs. J. H. Newland was open for the twenty-sixth year. On Thursday they served one of their famous chicken dinners.

D. P. Jordan of Danielson, Mrs. Ernest E. Torrey and Miss Martha E. Torrey of Putnam and A. E. Starr of New London are guests at the Starr cottage.

Mrs. C. S. Holmes, Mrs. Charles Fitcham, Miss Minnie Lyon of New London, Miss Lizzie Ameline of Newcuttle, N. H., and guests at Miss Siedie Booth's on Foster avenue on Thursday.

Alphonse Burke Has Serious Accident at Quinebaug Mill—Eleven Year Old Boy Rescued from Drowning—Beautiful Memorial to Be Erected in Westfield Cemetery.

George P. Deuis is at New Durham, N. H., for a vacation of two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace E. Poore of Manchester, N. H., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Keach.

Walter L. Dixon was in Boston on a business trip Thursday.

Miss Mary Boudett has been spending a few days with friends in Providence and Boston.

Walter Hall of Springfield, Mass., is spending a few days with his father, Joseph Hall of Hutchinson street.

Mrs. Robert Gwynne and daughter, Ruth, of Peabody, R. I., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Bailey of West Side.

Mrs. Charles Call and son, Howard, have returned from a stay of a few days down the Providence river.

James Love of Webster was a visitor in Danielson Thursday.

W. P. Law is improving from a recent illness at his home in East Killingly.

To Attend French-Canadian Convention.
Dr. J. N. Perreault, Joseph N. Lavallee and L. J. Thetruait have been named as delegates to represent Court Margaret and the French-Canadian Baptists at the state convention of French-Canadian societies to be held in Norwich on September 7 and 8.

It is the desire of the French-Canadian societies to have a meeting in the hall of the societies in the Keystone building to name delegates to the convention as representatives from the French-Canadian societies to be held in Norwich, Sept. 7th and 8th.

Alphonse Bourque in Serious Condition
Alphonse Bourque is in a serious condition at his home on the West Side from the effects of an injury that he received while engaged in his duties as an employee of the Quinebaug company. Mr. Bourque is employed at the mill and one of the tasks assigned to him is the hauling of logs down the river. He was struck by a log and thrown to the floor, striking on a protruding bolthead. His injuries were not believed at first to be of a serious nature, but the growing rapidity of the Thursday afternoon his condition was regarded as serious.

Officers of Putnam Association.
The newly elected officers of the Putnam Association are: President, Miss Emily Morgan; vice president, Miss Mary P. Fogg; secretary, Ernest Bradford Ellsworth; treasurer, Sara W. Bagelow; registrar, Henry W. Bigelow.

There were about forty of the members of the association at the annual meeting held in St. Mary's cemetery and at which papers on subjects of interest to the membership were read. The next annual meeting will also be held in Brooklyn.

WEDDING.
Bradford Gardner.

Miss Eva Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merton Gardner of Reynolds street, and Louis Bradford, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bradford of Brooklyn, were united in marriage by Rev. George E. Ferguson, pastor of the Advent church at Putnam, on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The bride and groom were now away on their wedding trip, after which they will make their home in Danielson. The scene of the wedding was a beautiful one. Danielson to Putnam because of the absence from this place of all the ministers, now away on their vacation trips.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.
Otis Warren, 11, Pulled Out of Quinebaug by Edmond Charbonneau.

Otis Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Warren of the West Side, narrowly escaped drowning in the Quinebaug river just above the Quinebaug bridge, Thursday morning. Otis, who is about eleven years of age, was fishing with his brother, Clarence, companion, from a canoe run in the rear of the houses on the river bank. Otis dropped his fish pole in the river and in trying to recover it he stepped on the wooden roller at the end of the canoe run. The roller spun around causing the boy to lose his balance and to fall into the water. Clarence gave a frightened cry for help, and succeeded in attracting the attention of Edmond Charbonneau, who lives in one of the houses very close to the scene of the incident. When Charbonneau arrived the drowning boy had disappeared below the surface of the water. Charbonneau immediately plunged in and was able to get the boy on the first dive and eventually pull him out of the river up on the bank. A few minutes of vigorous work were necessary to clear the accumulated river water from the boy's system, but six rose. Three present had been converted at the first meeting and five present had been to all but one.

a very narrow one, and he would surely have drowned had it not been for the prompt action of Mr. Charbonneau.

MONUMENT TO TILTON.
Gilbert A. Tracy Will Erect Memorial to Poet and Author in Westfield Cemetery.

Infatuated with the works of Theodore Tilton, journalist, poet and orator, Gilbert A. Tracy, who lives between Dayville and Putnam, will erect a beautiful memorial in Westfield cemetery to the distinguished writer.

The memorial is a beautiful section of land, and arrived this week at the yard of a local dealer in granite and marble. It is in three sections, the base being more than five feet in width. Mr. Tracy has purchased a plot in the cemetery especially for a site for the memorial, and as soon as the stone can be made ready it will be erected there.

The memorial is a granite monument, the base bears the inscription:

In Memoriam
Theodore Tilton
Poet—Journalist—Orator
1835-1907
Died in Paris 1907
Buried in Westfield
"By a Friend."

The erection of this fine memorial by Mr. Tracy is said to be the result of his remarkable appreciation of the writings of Mr. Tilton.

Theodore Tilton was born in New York October 2, 1835. He was a graduate of the College of New York University and was a member of the New York Independent, The Golden Age and the Brooklyn Union. He was the author of "The Sexton's Tales and other poems, and also wrote 'The Chameleon's Dish, Tempest Toss,' etc. The last few years of his life were spent in Paris, where he died in 1907.

PUTNAM VS. DANIELSON.
A Battle Royal Expected Saturday When Barnacle and Boucher Meet.

For the last time this season, Putnam will battle for the title of champion with Manager Benoit's re-established Danielson team. That means a ball game that will be a hummer.

That also means a pitchers' battle, if the teams are evenly matched. Putnam is bound to have a meal of some team to even up matters for the drubbing that Jewett City handed to them last Saturday.

Barnacle will be in the points for the visitors and Boucher will probably do the twisting for Danielson. That also means a pitchers' battle, if the teams are evenly matched. Putnam is bound to have a meal of some team to even up matters for the drubbing that Jewett City handed to them last Saturday.

Among the citizens.

With this sentiment prevalent, the school board has made contracts with principals and teachers conditionally dependent on the action of the voters in accepting or rejecting the school. The probable outcome of the matter is that the school will be turned over to the town when it was completed with a sufficient endowment to maintain it without expense to the taxpayers. Now that there is uncertainty of an endowment fund at least during the life of the donors, there is some hesitation about accepting it among the citizens.

The last time the teams got together it was in Putnam, Danielson shut them out with a score of 4 to 0.

PUTNAM
$1700 Appropriated for Street Improvements—Jeremiah Hayes, a Former Resident of Putnam—Uncertainty in Thompson Relative to New High School.

Rev. J. W. Walker and E. A. Morrell, Jr. are sending cards of sympathy to friends in Putnam. They are expected to return to Putnam in October.

Mrs. C. M. Green has been spending a few days at Madison beach.

Dr. E. F. Perry is at Washington, Conn., where his family have been spending several weeks.

Daniel Byrne of Boston is spending a few days at his home in Putnam.

Mrs. John W. Norton is at Jewett City, N. J., for a stay of two weeks.

Miss Barak K. Smith is visiting in Boston and Providence for a few days.

Harold Durrant has been named as a delegate from the French-Canadian societies to be held in Norwich, Sept. 7th and 8th.

Delegates to Norwich Convention.
Joseph Plesias, Dr. J. N. Landry and Hector Durrant have been named as delegates from Council Gagnon, 11 Union St. John Baptiste, to the state convention of French-Canadian societies to be held in Norwich, Sept. 7th and 8th.

The Artisans' society of this city will also send representatives to the convention, but they have not yet been elected.

Will Go to Seattle.
E. Raymond Gilpatrick will leave Putnam Monday for Montpelier, Vt., to remain for three weeks after which he will leave for Seattle as representative of a Vermont life insurance company.

FUNERAL.
Jeremiah Hayes.

Funeral services for Jeremiah Hayes, who died in Providence, were held at St. Mary's church Thursday morning. The services were held in St. Mary's cemetery. The bearers were D. F. X. McAvoy, William O'Brien, William Vale and John Gordon. Mr. Hayes, who died Monday, was formerly a resident of Putnam and has been away from the city about twenty years. Police Sergeant Patrick Hayes of Putnam is a brother of the deceased.

STREET IMPROVEMENT.
$1700 Voted for School and Mechanics Streets, 251 Ves, 97 No, at Special School Meeting.

There were an unexpectedly large number of voters cast at the special school meeting held in the common council chamber Thursday morning to allow the voters an opportunity to decide on whether or not $1700 should be appropriated for improving a section of School and Mechanics streets.

There was considerable opposition to the proposal, making the improvements, but it was voted. There were 348 ballots cast of which 251 were for the improvement and 97 against. Mayor J. J. McGarry is supervisor of the voting.
